BULLETIN

- Mrs. McCoy is now taking sign-ups for the 2017 African American Leadership Conference scheduled for Tuesday, Feb. 14, 2017. If you are interested in signing up, please see Mrs. McCoy today. You must be in good standing in your classes to attend.

There will be an invisible children's meeting in the S cluster office at lunch time on Monday, Nov. 14th. Pizza will be provided.

- CW students: If you are interested in tutoring students at Fort Washington, please contact Mrs. Zimmer or the front office at Fort for information. They need students Tuesdays and Thursday's from 3:10 to 4:00.
- Attention Students: The ASVAB Career Exploration is Tuesday November 15 in the CWHS Library; it is free to all 10th – 12th grade students. The ASVAB can help you take steps now towards finding a career that is right for you. The ASVAB assesses a student's ability to learn new skills and to predict success in a wide variety of military and civilian occupations. The ASVAB Career Exploration Program includes an interest inventory and other activities and resources designed to help students learn more about themselves, and to explore the world of work so you can gain confidence in making the right career decision. Everyone can benefit from the ASVAB CEP whether you are undecided as to which career is best for you, if you plan to go to a 2 or 4 year college, technical school, or enter the workforce after graduation. Opportunity is knocking, register today with your social science teacher, English Teacher, or in the Library.
