

The D & D Project Scholarship

*In honor of Russell F. Pipo
2017-2018*

The D & D Project will be awarding four scholarships on April 26 2018.

You are eligible for this scholarship if both of these apply:

- 1. You are a high school senior at the time of application from Washington Union or you are a High School senior raised in Pinedale California.*
- 2. You have a grade point average of 3.0 or better.*

The deadline to submit applications and all required paperwork will be April 23, 2018.

The guidelines are as follows:

- 1. Submit your autobiography in black type, 12 size font and double spaced of no more than 2 sheets of 8 ½ by 11 white paper. The autobiography should include your school activities, awards and leadership roles. We are a community based organization so we would like to know how you give back to your community and how your plans for your future will include volunteer work. Please address your educational and career objectives.*

In addition please write two or more paragraphs addressing the following topic:

America is a melting pot of different cultures and ethnicities, with boundless opportunities, however our country is still growing and isn't perfect. Please describe one problem/issue you see in today's society and explain how you would approach that issue and ultimately contribute to today and tomorrow's society.

- 2. Submit one letter of recommendation. (Must be written by an unrelated reference)*
- 3. Submit your transcripts showing you have a minimum of a 3.0 GPA and verification that you are a full time student.*
