BULLETIN

- Students: Interested in being part of something special on campus? Are you creative? A problem solver? A decent writer? Like photography? Good with people? Looking to get involved in something lasting and meaningful? Consider applying for yearbook next year. Applications are available outside of K-5.!
- Hey golden eagles! Do you have what it takes to be a leader? To motivate your peers? Do you have the need to serve and inspire those around you on campus? If you want to lead successfully, respect the creativity of others and learn from the people around you, then you should apply to be a ASB officer, Class officer or join Leadership. Applications are available now, outside of the Activities Office. They are due April 17th by noon. Don't wait and pick up your application today!
- Students who use the neighborhood to enter the back-parking lot off Cole, YOU BETTER SLOW DOWN. Residents are noticing that students and family are driving over the speed limit. Law enforcement will be out there and will cite you if caught driving reckless and over the speed limit.
- Pep and Cheer applications are now available in the Activities Office. Applications are due back to the Activities Office by April 27th. Late applications will not be accepted.
- Theater West needs all students that like to sing and dance to come to auditions for our Broadway Review, titled "Broadway Through the Ages." Come prepared with a song and dance from any Broadway Musical. Auditions are Thursday from 3:00 to 5:00 in B-3. Come by the drama room B-3 for a flyer and more information.
- The deadline for Peer Counseling Applications has been extended. Applications will be due on Friday, April 20th. Come by C4 if you have any questions.
